20 Important Christians You Should Follow on Social Media

Meg Bucher

Crosswalk.com Contributing Writer

11. Jen Hatmaker

Jen Hatmaker is quite possibly the most transparent Christian voice in social media. It's no doubt what continues to draw her audience in and redirect them to what it truly looks like to live a Christian life. In a generation that is tired of being preached to, she is funny! Sarcastic, even! Her book, "For the Love," typifies her genuine way of meeting people where they are at ... especially moms. God is funny, and people like Jen remind us that sometimes being joyful really does mean busting up a bit in laughter.
